

July 2015

Alfalfa Germination & Growth

Knowing how alfalfa germinates will help producers create conditions necessary for good stand establishment.

Knowing how seedlings develop will be useful in determining when to control diseases, insects and weeds.

Understanding patterns of growth spring green up and growth after cutting – will aid in identifying winter injury and disease problems, and in managing weeds.

And being familiar with the mature stages of alfalfa growth will be helpful when making decisions when to cut in order to be helpful when making decisions when to cut in order to ensure maximum yield of forage of the quality required.

The following publication provides a guide to alfalfa management.

To read the article, click to follow the link
<http://learningstore.uwex.edu/Assets/pdfs/A3681.pdf>

For further information on PICKSEED corn, please visit our website
<http://www.pickseed.com/ECanada/forages/products/>

DLF Pickseed was formed in 2013 when DLF TRIFOLIUM (DLF) acquired Pickseed Canada and Pickseed USA. DLF was founded in 1906 and is the global market leader in the research, development, production and distribution of turfgrass and forage crop seed.

DLF has subsidiaries or sales offices in Denmark, Sweden, the United Kingdom, the Netherlands, France, Germany, Russia, the Czech Republic, China, New Zealand, South America, Canada and the United States.

DLF Pickseed Canada is headquartered in Lindsay, Ontario with products being marketed utilizing the PICKSEED and Mapleseed brand names. Our brands are backed by a trusted and proven reputation for quality, agronomic advice and a commitment to research and technology.